MISS VIRGINIA'S OUTSTANDING TEEN 2014 Casey Shepard

On Saturday, June 28, 2014, Miss Apple Blossom's Outstanding Teen, Casey Shepard, was crowned Miss Virginia's Outstanding Teen 2014 in the Roanoke Performing Arts Theater. This crowning achievement began a journey that will take her across the Commonwealth promoting scholastic achievement, creative accomplishment, community involvement and healthy living for Virginia's youth.

Casey will be speaking to audiences across Virginia about her personal platform "E.N.D.D. — Embracing, Not Defining Disabilities," and acting as a teen ambassador for Children's Miracle Network Hospitals, the national platform of the Miss America's Outstanding Teen Organization. Children's Miracle Network Hospitals is a non-profit organization dedicated to saving and improving the lives of children by raising funds for children's hospitals.

She is an active volunteer with Special Olympics Virginia in her hometown, and hopes to expand her volunteerism to support Special Olympics athletes statewide during her year of service.

Along with the title of Miss Virginia's

Casey Shepard is represented exclusively by the Miss Virginia Organization.
